WHAT ARE WE DOING AND WHY ARE WE DOING THIS?

Objectives

- Be able to define and identify theme.

Schoolwide Learner Outcome (SLO)

- Communicate Effectively

A top-down view of a wooden desk. In the center is a black typewriter. To the left is a camera and a pair of glasses. To the right is a cup of coffee on a saucer and a small vase with red roses. In the top left corner, there is a small bowl with white flowers. The background is a dark wooden surface.

THEME

A common thread or repeated idea that is incorporated throughout a literary work

- It is a thought or idea the author presents to the reader that may be deep, difficult to understand, or even moralistic
- Generally, a theme has to be extracted as the reader explores the passages of a work
- The theme provides an answer to the question, “What is the work about?”

IN CLASS / HOMEWORK

Read: to page 26 (3rd period)

to page 29 (4th period)

Of the 9 Vignette's you will read tonight: Pick one vignette and write a short 1 paragraph response paper about it. You may write about your personal feelings, relate it to something that has happened to you or someone you know, etc. In another paragraph you must also explain what the theme of the chosen chapter is and support your idea with evidence from the text. This will be collected at the beginning of the next class period.
